

International Arbitration Round Table

Victoria University, Wellington – 23 April 2018, 12.00pm – 2.00pm

AMINZ, Victoria University of Wellington and International Law Association invite you to join them for a round table discussion on international arbitration.

Ask arbitration specialists your questions and learn about developments in international arbitration.

Each specialist will provide a brief introduction on a topic they are passionate about, before a Chatham House Rules discussion, and comments on any issues raised by the audience.

The specialists

- Sarah Grimmer (Hong Kong)
- Wendy Miles QC (London)
- Professor Campbell McLachlan QC (Wellington)
- Nicola Swan (London)
- Natascha Tunkel (Vienna)
- Victoria Shannon Sahani, (United States)
- Dr Christian Riffel, Christchurch
- Dr Petra Butler (Chair)

Who should attend

- Lawyers
- Arbitrators
- Arbitration practitioners
- Students of arbitration

Register online or complete the below information and email to institute@aminz.org.nz

Name:

Tel: Fax: Mobile:

Email:

Postal Address:

..... Postcode:

Additional Information

- This is a complimentary event with lunch included. Registrations are accepted strictly on a first come / first served basis.
- For further information, please phone 0800 426 469 or email institute@aminz.org.nz